What people are saying:

BC Hydro is pleased to fund education programs that provide students with the knowledge to make informed decisions in shaping a sustainable future. Understanding the importance of the Fraser River to the province allows students to continue to take personal action for energy conservation in BC.

Larina Lopez, BC Hydro Community Investment, Outreach and Education Manager

We applaud the Fraser River Discovery Centre's work to educate and inform the community about the importance of the Fraser River, both ecologically and economically.

Vancouver Airport Authority

The FRDC provide a unique opportunity to engage school groups, community groups and the general public in a greater discovery of the Fraser River, promoting a stronger awareness of our watersheds.

- ✓ School programs integrated with BC Ministry of Education curriculum.
- ✓ Permanent, touring and temporary exhibits.
- ✓ Resource Library focused on the historical, social, economic & ecological impact of the Fraser.
- ✓ A high definition theatre featuring one of a kind films providing spectacular imagery and engaging narrative.
- ✓ An Education Centre, hosting engaging, thought-provoking and stimulating activities for school tours and community groups.
- ✓ Special Events such as: Earth Day (April), National Aboriginal Day (June), FraserFest (July) & BC Rivers Day/ World Rivers Day (September).

What is the Giving Circle?

The Giving Circle is a donor giving recognition club for annual gifts of $500 or more.

Why Join?

Joining the Discovery Centre Giving Circle is an opportunity for individuals and corporations to demonstrate their commitment to the Fraser River.

Where will the donations go?

All donations will support exhibits, programs and public events to develop the Fraser River Discovery Centre in the Centre of Excellence for stimulating passion, education and enlightenment about the Fraser River.

How/when can I donate?

Gifts can be made in full any time during the year or divided into twelve monthly payments.
